

ANTI-HUMAN TRAFFICKING INTELLIGENCE INITIATIVE

preCharge, Inc. partners with the Anti-Human Trafficking Intelligence Initiative

“The Anti-Human Trafficking Intelligence Initiative aspires to pioneer necessary change in the approach to trafficking prevention, detection, reporting and collaboration to achieve justice and save lives” says Aaron Kahler, its Founder and President. "We are excited to welcome preCharge as the first crypto-currency exchange to collaborate with the ATII and know they will make great partners in the development of a network of socially responsible crypto providers and blockchain leaders to fight the funding of human trafficking and prevent the proceeds of trafficking through cryptocurrency."

The Anti-Human Trafficking Intelligence Initiative (ATII) is a non-profit organization dedicated to the abolition of human trafficking. Their Mission is to combat global human trafficking by leveraging corporate social responsibilities directly through advocacy awareness, intelligence integration, technology advancement, and strategic data collaboration.
